

about the competition

Architects, interior designers, urban planners, students, firms from All over the World are welcome to submit built projects and concepts/competitions completed between the years of 2015 - 2016 to be considered and successful entries will be featured in the latest issue of Architecture256TM magazine to be released 1st June 2016. The top 100 projects shall be selected by a panel of international judges from 6 continents

categories

Architects, interior designers, urban planners, students, firms from All over the World are welcome to submit built projects and concepts/competitions completed between the years of 2015 - 2016 to be considered and successful entries will be featured in the latest issue of Architecture256TM magazine to be released 1st June 2016. The top 100 projects shall be selected by a panel of international judges from 2 continents.

rules

Provide Confirm participation by writing to competition@architecture256.com (registration is now in progress) RE: registration for competition participation 2015 Name of participant(S): Location(country/continent):

prizes

Architects, interior designers, urban planners, students, firms from All over the World are welcome to submit built projects and concepts/competitions completed between the years of 2015 - 2016 to be considered and successful